

March 21, 2014

RE: Match Day 2014

Dear Incoming Residents and Fellows:

On behalf of both the sponsoring institution, The University of Tennessee College of Medicine Chattanooga, and our primary clinical training hospital and major affiliate, Erlanger Health System, we welcome you as you prepare for this next phase of your medical education training. We are pleased that you have selected our institutions as your clinical learning site and that you have placed confidence and trust in our abilities to provide quality Graduate Medical Education. The University of Tennessee and Erlanger have a strong partnership that enables us to provide a unique balance of clinical and medicine and academics for outstanding patient care and education. We also believe you will find Chattanooga a friendly and welcoming community.

This is an exciting and changing time for health care, and we are honored to be working beside you as the future of medicine unfolds. These next few months will likely be fast paced. We encourage you to savor the moments as you prepare for graduation. We are anxious and ready to work with you as you enter this next phase of your career.

Congratulations on this Match Day 2014. See you soon in Chattanooga and at Erlanger – a great place to work, learn, and live – where “we practice what we teach.”

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "David C. Seaberg".

David C. Seaberg, MD, CPE, FACEP
Professor and Dean
UT College of Medicine Chattanooga

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Kevin M. Spiegel".

Kevin M. Spiegel, FACHE
President and CEO
Erlanger Health Systems